18th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, his father. Subject stated that he was attending the University of Georgia School of Medicine at Augusta, Georgia. Subject listed the following information concerning his education:

He stated he attended New York University and received a B.S. Degree. He stated he attended Anderson College of Medicine, where he studied medicine for two years. Anderson College is located in Glasgow, Scotland.

In view of the fact that the subject was studying medicine he was classified 2-A by the Local Board on August 19, 1941. The file reflects the subject took a physical examination on February 26, 1942 and was qualified for non-combatant service only, due to poor vision. Subject again took a pre-induction physical on July 14, 1944, at which time he was declared physically fit and acceptable for general military service.

On April 19, 1945 the subject's case was reopened and he was reclassified 1-A. On May 1, 1945 subject was reclassified 2-A after a hearing of the board, this classification to be in effect until June 30, 1945.

Selective Service Form 42-A was submitted by the Harlem Hospital, 137th Street and Lenox Avenue, New York City, stating that the subject was an interne and they requested that he be given a deferment so that he might finish out his internship. This form stated that the subject's internship was due to run from September 1, 1944 until May 31, 1945.

The records reflect that the subject's file was sent to Local Board 47 at Middlesex County, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts, on June 30, 1944. The file reflects that the subject graduated from Middlesex University School of Medicine in July, 1944.

On May 1, 1945 there was a notation in subject's file which reflected that he was married in January, 1944; that he has one child.

Dr. JACOB GOLDEN, Assistant Medical Superintendent, Harlem Hospital, 137th Street and Lenox Avenue, advised that they have on their staff as an interne, an individual by the name of RAYMOND R. SACKLER. Dr. GOLDEN checked the records of the hospital, which reflected that the subject was given a post as an interne at the Harlem Hospital upon his graduation from Middlesex University School of Medicine on September 1, 1944, and that the internship usually continued for a period of approximately one year.

MARY MONAHAN, in charge of personnel records, Harlem Hospital, made available the records concerning the subject, which reflected approximately the same information as has been set out previously. The records reflect that the subject was married on January 29, 1944 and his wife's first name was BEVERLY.

NY 100-75886

The marriage records, Borough of Manhattan, under number 20920, volume 3, reflect that on January 24, 1944 a marriage license was issued to RAYMOND R. SACKLER and BEVERLY FELDMAN. Information contained on the records reflected that RAYMOND SACKLER's place of residence was given as Beth Moses Hospital, 404 Hart Street, Brooklyn, New York. His age was given as 23, having been born on February 16, 1920 at Brooklyn, New York. His occupation was given as that of a medical student. His father's name was given as ISAAC SACKLER, born in Austria and his mother's maiden name as SOPHIE GREENBERG, born in Poland. He stated he had no previous marriages.

Information contained on the marriage license concerning BEVERLY FELDMAN reflected that her residence was New York University School of Medicine, First Avenue and 26th Street, New York City. Her age was given as 19 and date of birth as May 13, 1924 at Brooklyn, New York. Her father's name was given as DAVID FELDMAN, born in Russia, and her mother's maiden name was ANNA BAKEMAN, born in Russia.

The records reflect that the date of marriage was January 29, 1944 at Yonkers, New York, and the ceremony was performed by City Judge CHARLES W. BOOTE. The license also reflects subjects were again married on April 2, 1944 at Brooklyn, New York by Rabbi JACOB BOSNIAK.

A check of the indices of the New York Field Division fails to reflect any additional information concerning the subjects, which has not previously been supplied to the office of origin.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of a letter-head memorandum, dated and captioned as above.

The informant mentioned in the attached memorandum is FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

The pretext reflected in the attached memorandum on 10/24/60 was a telephone call by SA FRANCIS J. SANDIN to the subject's residence (MA 1-1510) at 170 Birch Drive, Roslyn, NY, under the guise of a credit inquiry.

The pretext reflected in the attached memorandum on 10/28/60 was a telephone call by SA EUGENE J. HINDES to an individual, who identified herself as the subject, under the guise of a representative of the Accounting Department of Pan American World Airways, (MA 1-1510).

The enclosed memorandum is stamped "~~Confidential~~" since the data reported by the aforementioned informant could reasonably result in the identification of a confidential informant, thereby jeopardizing the informant, which may have an adverse effect on the national security of the US.

A separate memorandum has been prepared on the subject's husband, RAYMOND RAPHAEL SACKLER, (Bufile 100-340415, NY file 100-75702).
